2. The billing plan is unavailable for new connections and swaps.

3. Writing off the monthly subscription fee and assigning limits:

- The date the monthly subscription fee is deducted in the monthly period is the date the subscriber connects to the billing plan.
- With a new connection to the billing plan, the monthly subscription fee and limits are deducted/assigned in full (not scaled) if there is a sufficient amount on the balance.
- If there is a lack of funds or a negative balance to deduct the monthly subscription fee according to the plan, the deduction does not occur, the limits of the included traffic are not assigned, the balance of the subscriber's number is not written off in debt.

- The subscription fee is deducted in the interval of once a month from the date of successful deduction of the monthly subscription fee under the billing plan. The date of debiting the next monthly subscription fee shall be the date of the last successful deduction of the subscription fee under the billing plan.
- Regular monthly fee deduction and limit assignment within the plan is performed from 00:00 till 08:00 a.m. (deduction time is not fixed). In order to write off the monthly subscription fee in full, the subscriber needs to have enough money on the balance.
- If at the time of deduction the monthly subscription fee there is not enough money on the balance to deduct the fee, the subscriber's number is blocked. The subscription fee is not deducted until there is not enough money on the balance to deduct the subscriber fee in full.
- The monthly subscription fee will be deducted immediately when the balance is topped up by a sufficient amount to deduct the subscription fee in full. After the monthly fee is deducted, the subscriber's number will go into active status and the limits will be assigned according to the terms of the billing plan. Further, the subscription fee will be deducted according to the new monthly period of the subscriber, i.e. within 1 month from the date of the last successful deduction of the subscription fee for the plan.
- The monthly subscription fee is debited in the interval of once a month from the date of successful debiting of the monthly subscription fee according to the tariff plan. The date of debiting the next monthly subscription fee is the date of the last successful debiting of the subscription fee according to the tariff plan (if the subscription fee was charged on the 31st day, and in the next month there are 30/29/28 days, then the next subscription fee will be charged on the 30th day, or on the 28th/29th day in February. If the subscription fee is paid on time according to the tariff plan (continuous presence of the number in the active status), the subsequent debiting of the subscription fee will be on the 31st day).

4. Monthly limits under the terms of the billing plan are assigned only after the monthly subscription fee of the plan for the current period is successfully deducted. Monthly limits under the terms of the billing plan are provided for 1 month from the date of assignment. In the case of timely payment of the subscription fee under the billing plan, the remaining monthly limits are available in a new period and are valid until they are completely exhausted or until their expiration date.

- If the monthly subscription fee is not deducted on time, the unused balances of the limits in the previous billing period are reset to zero.
 - To avoid misunderstandings, we recommend that you top up your balance beforehand to the amount sufficient for deduction the subscription fee in full and check the limits of the billing plan by using the USSD-request *100#.
 - Tariff plan change is not available in blocked status.
- If there is enough funds on the subscriber's balance to charge the subscription fee for another available tariff plan + the cost of the transition (in case the transition to the tariff plan is paid), you can change the tariff by all available methods.
- In the blocked status, the subscriber has access to the remaining limits under the terms of the monthly Internet packages until their expiration date (in case of balance).

- When the monthly limits of the billing plan are exhausted, calls and SMS are charged according to the cost to destinations in excess of the limits under the terms of the billing plan.

- If the monthly Internet traffic limit according to the billing plan and additional Internet packages are exhausted, access to the Internet is suspended. To continue using the Internet, the subscriber shall select the option under which he will continue to use the Internet:

- Update tariff limits (activate Restart service);
- Buy internet package;
- Connect mobile Internet at a cost of 1MB over the limit *

*- If the subscriber chooses the option to use mobile Internet at a cost of 1MB over the limit, and then buys a New monthly Internet package, at the end of the limits of the additional package, the Internet will be spent at a cost of 1MB over the limit according to the terms of the billing plan until the next subscription fee is charged.

The option "Connect mobile Internet at a cost of 1 MB over the limit" the subscriber can also independently by means of USSD-request *727#.

If subscribers apply to the Company's operators to activate the option "Connect mobile Internet at a cost of 1 MB over the limit", the operators must deactivate the SO Pay as you go in the SBMS module.

When blocking access to the Internet, to use the applications of payment systems, the subscriber must disable data transmission mode for correct offline operation.

Please note:

- If the subscription fee is charged in a timely manner on the set date and limits are set for the billing plan for a new period, the previous limits, if any, are transferred to the next period and are available for use until they are exhausted or until their expiration date.

- When switching from the "Foydali" tariff plan to other tariff plans, previously assigned limits within the previous tariff plan are reset to zero.

- In order to avoid misunderstandings, before using the limits within the tariff plans, we recommend you to first check the assignment of limits for the tariff plan using the USSD request *100# or Ucell Mobile Application. Before setting the limits, calls, SMS and MB are charged according to the cost for directions in excess of the limits according to the terms of the tariff plan.

5 "We appreciate you!" loyalty program is available for subscribers of the "Foydali" tariff plan in the "Valuable" category.

- "U+" loyalty program is available for "Foydali" tariff plan subscribers.
