Note:

Pay attention that most smartphones when connected to the Internet generate the third-party traffic from installed applications (messengers, weather, news, etc.), it is also possible to involuntarily synchronize with the app store (GooglePlay, AppStore), analytics counters (Google, google-analytics.com, googletagmanager.com, gstatic.com, stats.g.doubleclick.net) of various accounts (Google, Facebook, Telegram, etc.). This traffic is not included in the scope of the service and is paid by a subscriber separately in accordance with the cost of Ucell-Internet tariff or purchased Internet package

Attention!

1. For the correct consumption of Internet traffic within the unlimited direction, we recommend to use only official applications: Facebook, Instagram, Telegram, WhatsApp and YouTube;
2. Only the main Internet data provided within the tariff plan, or the internet data of an additionally purchased Internet package is available for sharing via your smartphone's or other devices' mobile hotspot (tethering). The terms of unlimited Internet data provided within tariff plan do not apply while sharing Internet data from a smartphone to other devices

At the same time:

3. When connecting to YouTube, social networks and messengers through proxy servers, VPN or intermediary sites, traffic consumption occurs according to the Internet traffic limit issued within the tariff plan, or the connected Internet package provided to all directions, or Internet traffic is paid according to the cost of Ucell-Internet within the terms of the tariff plan.

In these cases, unlimited Internet traffic to resources is not available for use.

4. Owners of instant messengers and social networks use a certain range of IP addresses (protocols) to provide their services. Ucell provides traffic volume for these (registered) ranges. Ucell is not responsible if the range of IP addresses is changed by the owners, traffic consumption in this case occurs according to the Internet traffic limit assigned within the tariff plan, or the connected Internet package provided to all directions, or Internet traffic is paid according to the cost of Ucell-Internet within the terms of the tariff plan.
